

CHRONICLE N°18

Nemesis, the end of the Empire or the path of grace ?

It has now been almost two years since a huge part of the Western peoples literally went from hypnosis to possession. Many of these ordinary people, whom we sometimes still see in the city, look more and more absent or disturbed. What happens ? Are they sick or something ? Are they about to sink with their world ?

We must absolutely realize that the occult elite New Globalist Order, because it is led by STS entities, will have made every effort to succeed in subjugating all these crowds so strongly attached to their so-called freedom.

More determined than ever in its planning and ideology of transforming man into an immortal bio-digital hybrid species, this so-called technocratic elite will have little time to marvel at its diabolical scenario that undermined the genetics of human bodies and controlled their minds.

<https://jeminformetv.com/2021/03/25/vaccin-contre-le-coronavirus-le-plan-satanique-de-lelite-video-exclusive/>

In order to achieve its disastrous objective, it shot down all its cards : media lies, imprisonment, social constraints, divisions of the people, isolation of groups, threats, sanctions, arbitrary decisions and contradictory injunctions, all this thanks to the cooperation without conscience or ethics of the forces of order.

And even if their methods of subversion of the psychological and biological balance of the individual are neither incompetence nor ordinary cruelty, they are models of this famous "social engineering" which aims to make accept without objection, the violation of the physical, psychic and moral integrity of every human being.

Thanks to the subsidized media, which have almost all committed themselves to globalism, more than half of the world's population will have voluntarily agreed to participate in its own genocide. By simply relying on all these incessant lies, it has even consented to become laboratory rats.

LIFE IN THE LABS

You gonna get vaccinated ?
You're crazy, they haven't pasted the essays on man !

Among the voluntary vaccinated, most are still unaware that the massive injections currently practiced are only a first step, essential to the outcome of an even broader and sordid plan : a planetary eugenics with the annihilation of its "sub-population", which is none other than a vast ideological program of "cleansing" until all persons who are considered a handicap for society, have disappeared.

On the way to completion, this "idealized plan" of the depopulation of our planet, as it is detailed on the famous Georgia Guidestones, is only one of the elements, but still not the finality. Because the longer-term objective of these scientific programs, which are used by pharmacological corporations, is to try to make immortal certain carefully selected human lines, by injecting them with DNA modified by stem cell mRNA codes. Yes, no less than that !

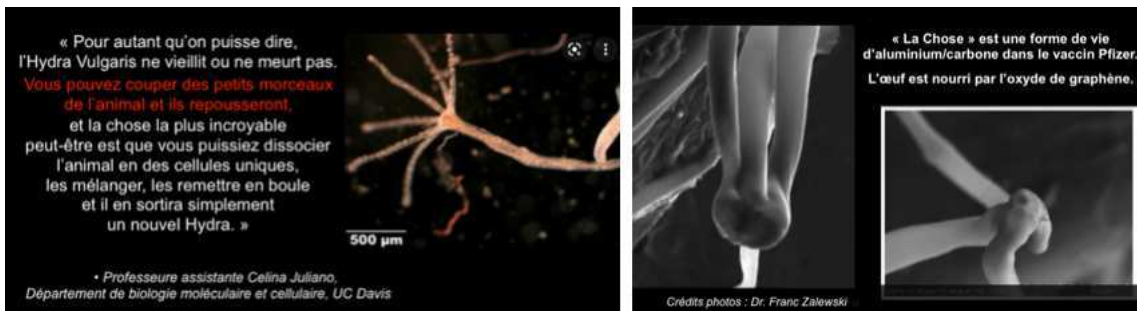

These pieces of genome from microscopic organisms such as Hydra Vulgaris or Trypanosoma Cruzi (responsible for Chagas disease), contain in their genetic codes the key to biological immortality.

But will they be viable once transposed into humans ?

<https://www.monaconatureencyclopedia.com/hydra-vulgaris/?lang=en>

It would then probably be to not interfere with these genetic tests that the antiparasitic such as the Hydroxychloroquine and the Ivermectin had been banned. They were not to destroy the parasites contained in certain vaccines, after they had been injected into the bloodstream. And they are human guinea pigs who served as test subjects for this chimerical immortality of ordinary man.

<https://www.reseaeleo.com/quatre-parasites-trouves-dans-les-injections/>

The second major perspective of this vast plan to reset the planet, which set in motion the scientific and military programs (especially terrestrial and space), was not only to establish an electromagnetic extension in our space-time from the upper atmosphere to our DNA to trap humanity in its density, but also to displace a part of the human population in a future of artificial and technological density, supervised by STS entities.

This machination, still ongoing, began under hypocritical pretexts to free thousands of children from the clutches of the satanists in order to divert the public from the existence of this planning of technological extension from the 3rd to the 4th density. A little while ago, these child rescue operations were widely publicized.

Thanks to these experiments, large areas with artificial electromagnetic fields, caused by advanced military technologies triggering dimensional windows, have become temporary transdensitary infiltration areas, which would grant to this occult elite the power to exercise a total digital control over the "rebellious", these future survivors of ordinary humanity.

These dimensional gates suspended in the non-temps would also allow the memories of all these volunteers for a digital future to be transposed into a "cloud", a kind of magnetic cloud driven by artificial intelligence, itself manipulated by 4th density STS entities. These areas, positioned by these advanced secret technologies, would constitute a sort of gigantic magnetic traps used to harvest the souls of the Service To Self – STS.

This so-called "grandiose transhumanist project", quintessentially anti-natural, would grant to these few enlightened handpicked, to access a presumed immortality provided by the fusion of the human brain with the machine. This "material survival" engendered by technology would nevertheless consist in rejecting the most elementary of the universal spiritual principles which value death as an extension of life.

<https://fr.sott.net/article/38937-Elon-Musk-affirme-que-ses-puces-cerebrales-Neuralink-seront-testees-sur-des-humains-des-2022>

At the end of this cycle, humanity is therefore dealing with a governing caste ready for all possible transgressions to achieve its objective, which would be to control as many humans as possible after their transition to 4th density.

Therefore, the current campaign of transgenic injections is not only a crime of unparalleled importance in the history of humanity, but these artificial and forced changes in human DNA have been organized to neutralize the original human strain created by the planners.

The question to be asked would be : would these hyperdimensional predators want to replace the world's creator consciousnesses and reorganize life on Earth themselves ?

The ten commandments for an "Age of Reason" engraved in several languages on these famous granite megaliths in Georgia and which detail the plan of this elite of the New World Order, finally would suggest it. They would amount to a massive depopulation of the Earth, the establishment of a single, sovereign world government, and the introduction of a new type of spirituality.

This guideline of the destiny of our planet has already been revealed at the Davos forum by Klaus Schwab's "Grand Reset" and planned by Agenda 20-30 (the Green Agenda supported by the entire horde of saviors of the planet, environmentalists, vegetarians, completely ignorant of the real essence of the planetary entity).

<https://www.reseauleo.com/klaus-schwab-et-sa-grande-reinitialisation-fasciste/>

In reality, this agenda, which calls for a revolution through ecology, is quietly preparing for a drastic reduction in the world population, which, if it is realized, will probably end up close to 80% of "disappeared".

This monstrous schedule that disguises this project of controlled depopulation of the planet, is based on an incredible amount of lies. And it is these which, by their very low resonance frequencies, would cause all these cosmic and climatic phenomena which they, in a few years, will really cause this drastic decrease of the population. It will therefore probably be far beyond the planning organized by the elites.

Thus, in attempting to control and select the human population, these dark globalist dictators will go against cosmic laws. Their arrogant ignorance will soon produce the ultimate chaos and precipitate the completion of the current 3rd density. And once again, the 4th density STS will feast on the energy of pain and suffering generated by human stupidity.

It would therefore be a mistake to believe that this caste of the "Illuminati Elite" ignores the laws it transgresses, since it does so in full knowledge of the facts. And if his "Agenda" is still going as planned for the moment, it is only because of the consent, explicit or not, of the world population to this program, yet unveiled for a very long time already in many literary or cinematographic forms.

These programs of psychic manipulation intended to make the peoples admit the reality of a future which they have believed to have chosen, ignore the free will of the individual. This notion of free will is nevertheless essential from now on, since it conditions each new day the future fate of everyone.

As usual, we therefore preferred to question the Angel about the viability of this project, evidently initiated by this caste of hyperdimensional predators, the Zionist enlightened and presumably their accomplices designers of the Georgia Guidestones, the Rosicrucian guild founded by Christian Rosenkreutz.

Question to the Angel :

How long will this Illuminati caste persist in this dangerous game ? Is it permissible for it to alter the genetics of the human line to this extent ?

Hyperdimensional predators are currently harvesting souls of the STS 3rd density, thanks to the complicity of their human executors. But this game now becomes a gigantic game of bluff that will end very badly for them. For the project prepared long ago by these "enlightened psychopaths" is based on the illusion that the soul-mind of the human being can be controlled or reprogrammed by digital technologies.

Being "illuminated weak-brained", they try by all means to dominate the laws of nature, but have no knowledge of the repercussions of their nuisances in the law of densities. They should therefore already consider themselves as a failure of evolution.

Reprogramming the human mind functions momentarily and in a very limited way only for the organic portal individuals who make the transition between the 2nd and the 3rd density, but who then will turn into zombie-cyborgs.

On the other hand, humans at the end of the cycle, especially when they turn to the Service to Others, will not be reprogrammable, since their higher consciousness and search for Knowledge preserve them from this kind of manipulation.

You can therefore understand that this occult elite is already mistaken, since it is based on the belief that the life of man is based on a purely quantitative and utilitarian conception to make the happiness of the greatest number. Their guiding illusion lies in this delusional amalgamation between the intellect (the knowledge of the brain) and consciousness, which is not attached to any organ, since you have already well understood it, the source of the consciousness of the true man is not of this world.

This is why this cross-entity between knowledge and technology, whose advent the globalists project, will simply not be viable. Devoid of connection to the source of the universe's intelligence, this cyborg entity, or whatever you might call it, is already stillborn. Because it is your connection to the morphogenic field, to the intelligent source of the universe which, as a human, deeply unites you to each other. The technologies, language or culture that you might still identify with, make you something much more limited than the personality that you really are and that you should now blend in to recognize yourself.

Trying to break this connection to the morphogenetic field of humanity, as they try to achieve it by this planetary eugenics plan, will not give rise to the long-awaited genesis of the fully obedient technological man, but it will rather resemble the last jolts of a horde of poultry to which the heads have just been cut off and which for a few moments before collapsing, still continues to run randomly its nervous reflexes.

But it is not by thinking that their projects have already fallen into the water that the terrestrial peoples will triumph over this transdimensional struggle, since on the higher planes, the unfolding of time, as conceived by the human, does not exist ! Because in their frustration of not being able to achieve their ends, the SDS with their transhumanist program will deploy all kinds of technologies to try to destroy everything that still remains. They only know how to do that, to destroy the worlds and to ruin the creations.

An arsenal of suits has been implemented through the deployment of lethal technologies with the presence of countless toxic substances in the air, water and food. The use of 5G or psychotronic weapons associated with nanotechnology, is today the flagship of this diabolical mechanism. So you will see many more infamies committed against the living. Many people will likely lose loved ones because of them. But you will see the fall of the old world anyway, which will be replaced by a new organization of the planet. This new world will certainly not be that of these henchmen of the New World Order.

You must remember, however, the famous law of cause and effect, whereby everything, every phenomenon or event, is always counterbalanced in the universe, because before it is realized on the material plane, this law of causality is already operating in the minds of many individuals. It is therefore to be taken into consideration !

This then means that by trying to drag humanity into their destructive madness, the inventors of the Big Reset have already allowed themselves to be caught in their own trap. By its excessive pride, this occult elite has revealed itself to the light. Practically all of his pimps came out of the shadows so that many souls who had remained ignorant of their existence could "see" them as they are and finally perhaps begin to awaken !

<https://www.fawkes-news.com/2021/12/non-masque-jacques-attali-exige-le.html>

Nevertheless, far too little influence to reverse the trend, this manifestation of a painful revival, vital for humanity, is only in its infancy. Many people will still yield to fear and succumb to the siren songs. But they will only increase the power of the return of the staff of Nemesis, this uncompromising "celestial goddess", who will chastise without compassion all these violators of universal laws.

By trying to alter the genome of human beings, the elites who think they are God are trying to deceive Mother Nature. In the ancient world, this behaviour was called "hubris". It referred to the inordinate arrogance that leads some individuals to follow a path or projects that lead to certain self-destruction. Hubris is therefore a crime of power, the extreme pride or brazenness of an individual offending the gods. Attitude that is severely punished by the power of the cosmic elements.

Nemesis is therefore that goddess who relentlessly punishes men who take themselves for "the creator" and who commit acts beyond the prerogatives of a mere mortal. Hubris leads to the goddess, the higher spirit of heavenly punishment. Nemesis then becomes the fateful agent of the fall of these manipulators of the human mind.

When the times have passed, Nemesis
punishes men
pretending to be the creator.

Your blackmailers are thus engaged in a race against the clock that they will not be able to hold in the long run and whose arrival will inevitably be fatal to them.

The fact of resorting to the "forced" acceptance of a good part of the peoples is already an admission of failure, since consent obtained under blackmail has less value than an agreement by which an individual deliberately abandons his spiritual values or moral principles, in order to benefit from them.

The beliefs related to religions or to the ferocious scientism of recent centuries are now opposed to your "memories of the universal principle". But it is the latter that will henceforth forge your irrepensible instinct of survival. Because this survival instinct is a mechanism "revived" by the genetic codes of cometary viruses which should therefore be considered as a natural vector of human evolution. These viruses, coming from the depths of the cosmos, have a specific but beneficial action in improving the genome of an individual. This depends on its genetic heritage, but especially on the frequency of resonance that he emanates.

Individuals infected with these naturally occurring or artificialized cometary viruses (such as the Covid virus) will be evolutionarily neutralized, killed or sterilized. While others, because of their higher vibratory frequency, will be spared and will be able to experience evolutionary jumps, this thanks to a very special protein that carry these cometary viruses : syncytin.

The viral codes that this protein conveys are considered to be the primary driver of reproductive system growth in nearly all mammals.

Although the symptoms of natural or man-made viral load contamination are virtually the same in all humans, their acquisition from different viruses occurred independently at least seven times during the evolution of the human race, as it corresponds very precisely to each end of cycle marked by the passage of comets "loaded" by the Wave and their and their virus-carrying dusts. Each evolutionary event of this type produces the separation into different branches, either of the order of mammals or of the human race, in the midst of which circulate these viruses.

At the beginning of your planet's last evolutionary cycle, the reproductive processes were oviparous. Then, following a huge evolutionary leap, it was made by viviparity. This evolutionary change included significant changes at the molecular, blood system, morphology, immunity and metabolism levels. The syncytin protein transported by cometary viruses thus becomes a fundamental factor in such a leap in embryogenesis, then in evolution. This time, this protein will participate in a new evolutionary leap that will propel you into much more ethereal and "materially" lighter realities to live.

Question to the Angel :

We understood that ordinary humanity was trapped by its own beliefs, because it did not take into account its history and the cyclical History of Earth. But are there places in the world where people are more likely to wake up and create networks of self-help to deal with tyranny and earthly change ?

Pockets of mutual aid network are born in many places, since it had been said that where two or three are assembled in his name, "He" is in the midst of them (implied Christ). It is enough that three persons, legates of a soul of Christ lineage, meet in the place where they meet (thus in the "place of their origin"), so that a change of energy can emerge.

The conscious and total reactivation of all the potentials conveyed by these people will have as a corollary their manifestation/realization on the material plane. And by following the Fibonacci sequel rule, which shows how this energy develops and then multiplies in creation, you could see how these pockets begin to multiply.

Moreover, this discreet increase of these "pockets of consciousness" has the consequence that the old world (that of ordinary people) and the new world (that of the future) are already in the process of separation. But as you were told, both will last some time before the differential and frequency change stabilizes. You could bring this process closer to the moment of death, by which the soul detaches itself from the body, but still persists in wandering in the astral before reaching the 5th density. Your transition into the new world will therefore take place naturally and smoothly, as long as there is no resistance to the process.

As for those from the STS corpus, who do not understand this natural process, they will try to provoke their own ascension by magnetically tying their bodies to the frequencies of 4th density, thanks to these famous graphene particles. They will even prolong their experiments by trying to modify the very genome of human beings.

This principle, seen as a science of heredity, designates eugenics. It has been used for millennia to get better crops or more resistant livestock. Its ideology was then introduced into the consciousness of peoples, as a new religion participating in the mechanisms of nature, while assuring that humanity will be ennobled by more educated races.

But as soon as it was applied to humans as the supreme solution to world problems, eugenics turned into a means by which a new psychopathic and technocratic regime could materialize. And instead of leading to renewal, this principle will have introduced concentration camps through confinement at home.

That is why today you are experiencing a state of permanent siege, a war on terrorism institutionalized by terror and crude lies, and which will simply have served to sponsor the "racial cleansing".

Question to the Angel :

More and more people are talking about sovereignty. They are proclaiming it publicly through the Marine Act. We already know that this self-proclaimed sovereignty only results in catching up with the individual on the other side of the matrix illusion. So why do some judges still give credit to this maritime law ?

Proclaiming his sovereignty by invoking the Admiralty Law only indicates that he who refers to it is aware of certain things, and that he is probably a Freemason, Rosicrucian or some initiate, claiming or proclaiming his free will, some judges may consider this request. But proclaiming his sovereignty in this way, is still part of the game of the STS matrix and does not solve its History !

About the Admiralty Law : <https://ayakenji.wordpress.com/2014/11/15/la-loi-maritime-difference-personne-naturelle-personne-juridique/>

When they thus betray their soul by consciously neglecting or exceeding their profound morality and the lesson offered to them, in exchange for a lessening of sanction, even celebrity, power or any other benefit, these individuals simply repudiate the "deep sovereignty" of their soul.

The sovereignty of Being is an inner and intimate state, a frequency of resonance that manifests itself in full consciousness of the universal Laws and does not need to be proclaimed to anyone. It simply consists in making full use of your free will, with full knowledge of the facts, which requires being perfectly "aligned" to let only this deep consciousness guide your choices and your actions. Even if it is the condition for which you have become incarnate and even if it can sometimes be expensive, this freedom of being should have no price. It doesn't get paid !

This true sovereignty manifests itself for the moment, and for most people, only by slight jolts of Consciousness which, however, are causing a beginning of change in the matrix. But no one could yet understand, for the moment, the real repercussions of this matrix mutation. For it is all your "memories of yesterday", reinforced by all your certainties or your often unfounded thoughts, that still trap you in what in 3rd density is considered the past.

Left over from a time already gone (usually unfortunate experiences), these psychological scars are the perfect medium to provoke mental or energetic attacks that are always arranged by the entities of the STS predator corpus.

Therefore, when you insist, protest against these "attacks" and reject the correspondence memoirs which are only flaws in your psychic constructions, you facilitate the formation of defensive barricades, blockages, separations from others, which then become integral parts of the attack.

But to "have revelation", you must learn to take a step back, to assimilate the information that is delivered to you and to see "without prejudice" the picture of the moment as a whole! In these conditions, information becomes Knowledge and if it is acquired through effort and perseverance, it builds Being. When you reach this point of achievement of the Self, then will trigger the signal of the complete and accomplished transition into your new future, which will sound the death knell of the immemorial hold of the STS corpus over human's mind.

The birth, as late as it is painful, of a true individual sovereignty in the mind of man, is revealed only by the beginnings of public questioning, of official discourses.

As a result, a mysterious force is reappearing from the depths of the ages to remind you who you were at your origins and what is your essence. It will lead you to regain your inner sovereignty and the full use of your free will as soon as you remain centered enough to let only your deep consciousness guide your choices and actions. Each one of you will grow and raise his resonance frequencies when he has become fully aware of the parts of himself and of the heritage still ignored from his past.

The present times are decisive, not only for the development of your souls, but also for the future of your own world and your positioning within it. No one will escape the great Revelation, of which you are yet witnessing only the preliminaries.

Because as the World Agenda is unveiled, people will wage war on their government. But you will also see and observe how, because of their beliefs, people will attack one another within nations, peoples and families.

What the human people will face is "unthinkable" to describe, yet should not cause you to deviate in the least from the things you chose to experience long before coming to this World.

Some of you are aware of your role as a beacon in the storm and already know the magic of letting go to make it happen. But you will all, one after the other, be called to free yourselves from the illusion of control over any aspect of the physical existence of the present 3rd density.

It will be a matter of being reborn to yourselves, finally adults, reconnected to the spiritual worlds whose facilities and manners have so long failed you.

Many seek this revelation throughout their incarnations, but few succeed in bending their intellect to achieve it. You all possess the innate ability to penetrate the higher worlds and know eternity from the material plane.

Just consciously and fully inhabit every moment of your daily life, to discover that this "infinite" sits in every gap between two thoughts that, remember, for the most part are not yours.

So you have to realize that your memories trap you in what in 3rd density is considered your past. You are invited now to stop dwelling on the events of this past and even forget who you were, to remain absolutely and completely present to your present reality !

You will then feel the strength of a Love so deep, of an intelligence so powerful that you will be invaded by such a solemn feeling of your littleness in front of the Universe, that you could dissolve into it.

I announce to you today : from the depths of the darkest night in which you are about to enter, your inner light will shine more intensely than ever.

Appearances must not deceive you. You are already on the path of grace. The tears of joy that come to you now, water the planet with what is purest and most beautiful in you !
