

CHRONICLE N°26The trauma of the origins
& The world of the three

Shortly before his death in 1963, Aldous Huxley confessed about his book Brave New World: “I had projected this new world at a distance of six centuries, and I find myself pretty terrified to realise that many of these prophecies have come true in one generation.”

Already in his time, he had imagined and anticipated that people would come to worship their oppressors, and to adore technologies that would destroy their ability to think. Indeed, here we are! In not even thirty years, the disintegration of the 3rd density of our world has accelerated in unimaginable ways, to the point that only the elders could perceive this decline and understand its preludes.

As we knew it, this world with its paradigms, its rules, its laws, its principles and its stupid and obsolete beliefs, is about to go to pieces, since the energy of transition towards the New Earth (a new reality) is increasing day by day. For those who are sensitive to it, its effects are now becoming clearly perceptible.

Henceforth, the new is about to be born, since completely unprecedented experiences lie ahead. Among them, we are offered the opportunity to experience a new strength: that of the “triplicative” sexual energy. Concretely, this “triplicative” reconnection consists of an energy connection through the upper heart center of several soul/mind individualities stemming from a same future center of consciousness: theirs!

We are therefore talking here about a “forbidden subject” which, not only has always been censored by all religions, but still remains misunderstood by human society, its science and its linear belief system that deeply ignores the real existence of missing links: genetic codes disappeared in the human being through their ignorance of the effects of sexuality. On a hyperdimensional level, their sexual behaviour would come from other life forms related to their genome and would be proven either by the involution of the individual on his timelines of the past, or by his evolution in other space-times of his future.

Despite appearances, sexuality, or shall we say the essence of “original sexuality”, therefore remains a universally misunderstood and taboo topic since it addresses “what is beyond duality”, that is the deep essence of sexuality in these next worlds.

The trauma resulting from the polar separation between the individual and his true Self, at the root of the male/female duality-based couple sexuality, occurs at the time of incarnation, that is to say of the fall into worlds of density. And it is on the basis of this primordial trauma that the current matrix system of our world of duality of 3rd density has been established and organised.

Then, what are we actually going to talk about?

We are led to reveal our understanding of these multiple psychological and emotional traumas that have been programmed through sexuality, then got impressed in the human unconscious since these famous Nephilim/Anunnaki predators “descended from heaven”, seeded human women’s genome with their “extraterrestrial semen”, concealing altered genetic codes. For these predatory entities have corrupted the natural and legitimate exchange of sexual energy within humanity, just by making Man believe in “the prohibition of pleasure and flesh”. Religions have then made a cardinal sin out of it and invented a ground for confession.

Those who have the ability and intelligence to understand this will have been able to perceive how “human principles and customs” took part in this physical and psychic manipulation of relations between men and women. They will also have noticed that since “forever”, because of their religions, humans were suffering from the separation from their higher Self: their cosmic double, the wholeness of their Being.

This primordial separation had first resulted in the energy differentiation of bodies, that is in the extreme separation and polarization of the masculine/feminine gender (feminine pole: negative / masculine pole: positive), thus causing the trauma of origins. This “original” fracture was induced during the descent of the entity to the 4th level, then its fall into a “lower world” with short cycles and bipolarized vibratory frequencies: the 3rd density – sexual bipolarities existing only very rarely in higher worlds.

The human, ignorant of the matrix dynamics of 3rd density, therefore spends entire lives seeking his energy counterpart resulting from the separation from his original Beingness, the asexual or androgynous ONE, Namlú’u or IS-BE! However, the “reptilian gods” predators of the human to the service to his individual Self, had only left him a “perverted sexuality” in order to overcome this separation from his energy counterpart. And for him to be forced to “fill this void”, he was led towards dual, venereal and perverted relationships with others.

According to Anton Parks, creator gods have shaped modern human. But some of these reptilian gods have modified him so that in 3rd density, he is separated from his higher Self. Nevertheless, with Enki’s complicity, some Amasutum (geneticist creatures of female polarity) had manipulated Ugubi’s genetics (primates/apes) to create Ukubi’im – a project of genetic modification of Ugubi/primates inspired by IS-BE/Elohim – so that in their future, their intelligence and their consciousness can progress.

Other genetic manipulations inspired by IS-BE/Elohim inhabiting reptilian bodies will lead “much later” to modern Man, some of whom will be able in their own future to reconnect with their great Self, their creative consciousness, in other words, the original IS-BE essence of their Beingness. This perfect primordial human, the androgynous Namlú’u carrier of both potential sexual polarities, had been imagined and assembled by the different breeds of “creators”, according to their different powers and qualities. These 4-meter Namlú’u, beings with multidimensional capacities endowed with a higher consciousness of 6th density, were the guardians of our planet before the evil Anunna/Nephilim gods penetrated the astral planes of our solar system. These guardians had migrated to higher densities and dimensions of vibrations, as these Nephilim arrived on Earth.

"[...] they (the creators) fashioned a creature by linking their powers from one to another, those with which they had been endowed. Each potency furnished a quality conforming to the image that they made of it psychologically. Thus they created a being modelled after the perfect Primordial Man [i.e., the Namlú'u]."

However, “at that time”, these reptilian life-creator Amasutum probably inhabited a long-cycle planet of 4th density and had the knowledge of “parthenogenetic magic” resulting from pluripartnered, female-only sexual exchanges. Their asexual mode of reproduction without fertilisation was thus exclusively carried out by reptilian females, without male intervention – the eggs developing without being fertilised by male gametes. Their world of energy, exclusively feminine, was certainly resulting from thoughts and non-dual psyche of the IS-BE center of consciousness, endowed with their 6th density creative consciousness.

Therefore, the universe of Amasutum was that of the matriarchs, life creator and planner geneticist mothers. Their reality of 4th density, a world with exclusively female polarity, was therefore organised according to principles of non-violence, in a society with feminine homoerotic mores and a completely antagonistic ethics to that of their Gina'abul males. The latter, rather predatory and destructive of worlds in nature, inhabited another area in the Universe, very far from that of their feminine/female counterpart.

Such societies, exclusively led by feminine principles, existed in Antiquity in 3rd density on Earth. The poet Sappho who lived in the seventh century BC on the island of Lesbos, is well-known for having expressed in her writings her attraction to women (hence the term “sapphism” to designate female homosexuality and that of “lesbian” for the females inhabitants of the island). Her literature and history confirm the traces left by such homoerotic communities, much more cultured and spiritually evolved than ordinary men-women bipolar sexual societies.

In 2nd density as well, some reptilian species are known to have populations totally or partially composed of parthenogenetic females, that is to say conceived without any male intervention, although they can exist.

But in Atlantis, the idea of the dual sexual activity, that is, only between male and female partners, was magnified, sublimated and idealised, since it was a hidden relic of primordial duality which constituted one of the “false secrets” of these male Anunna/Nephilim gods; a secret that was to be revealed only to the initiates at the end of times. In other words, the concept of man/woman duality, and the idea of good and evil in their sexual relations – automatically causing karmic retrocausality loops –, simply became beliefs induced in the astralized memories of the soul (human beliefs) by the “masters of the hyperdimensional corpus”, that Lizzie reptilian patriarchal elite which, nowadays, still governs the planet.

We therefore had to understand that the Namlú'u (the perfect primordial human) were totally asexual beings. But by genetically separating them into two sexual polarities, the “god” Enki had nevertheless ensured that his own prototypes would be able to reproduce sexually, while gradually developing their autonomy to gain the Knowledge of the initiates. The initiation into the “Secret of the Giš” or the “Secret of the Dark Stars” refers to the eternal feminine and the importance of also developing homoerotic exchanges and shares of the feminine sexual/creative energy and between females in order to bring back a new creative balance in the earthly society.

Enki's gift of sexed reproduction made to Men, Enki being originally asexual as well, is the reason why society and especially the Bible, have turned sexuality into a complete taboo; genetic alterations through sexual relations with some non-human entities requiring to remain hidden from human understanding and science. Biblical narratives produced to deliberately distort this reality have inspired the image of a temptress and sinful "Eve", created long after the male human being, as a kind of by-product next to him. In this way, religions have tried to hide the result of this genetic manipulation in legends and liturgical accounts.

Since then, sexual deviances inspired and led by the Nephilim incarnated in human bodies have caused modifications in the human genome for million of years, making it almost impossible for the individual to reconnect to his double, his own higher Self. It is thus to understand that the thought programs of these beings "from elsewhere" have entered the ordinary human's psyche and intelligence. Even for the human being endowed with a soul-spirit, these psychic programs are generally undetectable if the latter does not commit to a path of quest for Knowledge to progress in intelligence and in consciousness. However, as the end of a cycle becomes clearer, and as some individuals are slowly joining their energetic double, most often in the shape of an incarnated or gendered "Namlú'u" or "IS-BE" hyperdimensional counterpart, these human beings can now begin to heal the parts of their genome "violated" or mutilated by these beings, and still remaining in the astral realms.

In parallel, the Anunnaki/Nephilim – these hyperdimensional Nazi predators back in our world through the Ukrainian dimensional portals – continue to revel in the chaos they are causing by this 3rd World War mainly between the United-States, Europe, China and Russia. They will try and succeed in destroying the worlds manifested by the higher creative forces (those of the feminine and life-creator geneticists), since their mission is to generate new experiences for the astral of the next 3rd density or to push humanity to transit in 4th STS density.

In the meantime, in our still current reality of 3rd density and as usual, the official bodies with all their knowledge and their sciences still remain completely ignorant of the consequences of the change of density and the looming matrix modifications for this world. Official sciences are therefore still very far from recognizing the consequences of a true sexual exchange and even less understanding the energetic and liberating effects resulting from the conscious practice of a real sexuality between consenting partners – including female homoeroticism (desire between individuals of feminine gender or polarity, including with the man endowed with a highly developed female energy and without necessarily sexual intercourse) –, since these sciences can not yet conceive, nor even perceive the vibratory frequencies of this “in-between two worlds” produced by these genuine sexual exchanges. This intermediate state on which all the possibilities of reality open and rest, causes new phenomena already noticeable in space-time, or even non-physical movements, with the consequence of altering our time perception.

The Angel warned us this way: apart from the “perpetuation of the race in 3rd density”, the sharing of sexual energies calls for the energy of the three for its passage in 4th density. In the future, this new combination will bring a new balance in the already formed couples/pairs. Therefore, you will no longer be able to conceive sexual polarities that are simply dual in the reality of 4th density, since there will henceforth be three forces! In 3rd density, the father, the mother and the child already formed a triangle. That energy triangle was necessary, since it represented the highest form of development of the tripolarity. But it will be quite different in 4th density, since you have already been led to experience an extra dimension in your exchanges and the energy force of this third person will establish through their “third” polarity, a new psychic balance in the “coupe-le”¹.

Creation also reveals this three as the third state of matter expressing itself by the unstable gravity waves, and which return to establish (restore) the balance in the creation by the establishment of a new density of reality. This third state of matter resulting from this new configuration of consciousnesses, constitutes in its plasma state a new potential for the next world.

This plasma state, this “plasma” in which these famous UFOs also transit (themselves being plasma-like objects according to the densities and dimensions they cross), represents antimatter worlds which, for you humans existing in this 3rd density, are a new past and future potential of reality. This third state of matter also evokes these realities accessible to true shamans, those Wave travellers who explore these other worlds in which your alter and your other disembodied Selves evolve.

But while waiting to regain all these abilities that are still recorded in your genetics, you need to understand that before that, your current world will face the “great reset” of its dual polarity material reality. This natural “great reset” will also lead to changes in many other areas (measurements, perception of time, chemistry, how to feed and communicate, etc.) And sexuality, the subject at hand in this text, will also progress far beyond this duality. Thus, sexual exchanges within couples chained in their duality and commonly compelled and formalized by marriage, will slowly become obsolete. For many, sexual exchanges will clearly progress towards the balancing energy of the three, in other words towards a new paradigm of creative energy exchange and sharing, this time determined by the upper heart and sexual center, almost “specifically female”.

Extract from Chronicle 17 :

The genuinely human individual endowed with a soul in need of vital energy, does not draw it from others like soulless entities happen to do. But he obtains this vital energy, thanks to the higher sexual center located in the middle of the body, which is a zone of penetration of creative energy connected to the higher energy source of 7th density.

This sexual center thus represents the magnetic center directly linked to the 7th density. It is the one which expresses the universal Consciousness by its creative beats, that is, unstable gravity waves which, depending on the circumstances or influences you experience, validate or adjust your reality.

It is therefore the real “sexual chakra”, that of communication (“communal-sex”), and which is interactive with the other centers! It always remains active, since it is the higher center of creative energy whose beats are in accordance with the situations that occur in your outer environment and that stimulate the corresponding magnetic center.

It must be known that those magnetic centers which constitute the soul ties can connect to each other according to circumstances, interactions, or other things that come under an expressed or experienced truth.

Diagram of the shepherd's crook configuration of the energy centers

The middle sexual center (red point)
is the one that moors the soul to the body
The lower centers correspond rather to the STS urges
The higher centers fulfill the STO orientation of the soul

In the previous chronicle, we revealed that it was impossible for a human of 3rd density to “pilot” an UFO/STS transdimensional spaceship, when he lacked his “energy force partners”. In other words, the pilot of such a "technology" would need "partners of consciousness" of similar frequencies, who by the energetic connection of their thoughts could manage to master such a transdimensional technicality.

Nevertheless, to travel in space-time “aboard such a spaceship”, things remain of a completely different order for the moment. Because having nothing material, such a technology (that could be imagined and depicted as a spheroidal or ovoid space protected by its plasma and produced by a group consciousness), would manifest itself by the coherence of the upper sexual energy center of at least three partners connected to their center of consciousness of 6th density oriented to the Service to Others. A partnership of this kind, formed by at least three individuals completely balanced in their minds, body, intuition and senses stemming from their higher consciousness, could already make them travel through time and overlap densities. It would constitute what some authors define as the “perispirit” (semi-material or plasma envelope of a spirit or group of spirits).

But as frequencies of resonance of these three individual consciousnesses are not yet fully harmonised – a balance which indeed remains for the moment far from being the case for humans aiming to land on the New Earth –, these trans-density time travels do not yet seem possible. However, so that one day you can realise their possibility, it is essential as the Cassiopaeans also say, to search and to find examples of the impact or importance of the Law of the three. Not only to convince you of its efficiency, but also to accelerate the rehabilitation of your intelligence and consciousness on non-dual esoteric new basis.

You can then guess the relation that exists between sexuality, or rather the sexual triplicativity, and its influence on such a ship! And you will have understood: this living ship, this perispirit, is to be compared with a psychic phenomenon “materializing” by a sort of collective Merkabah. Just like the Kantekkians who had been transferred to Earth by their other Self/alter of the future, the survivors of Atlantis, in order to change density of existence, had been brought to Europe by crews composed of three “IS-BE from the future” entities (including, probably Urmah/LEO of STO orientation 4th density, future and higher human individual consciousnesses).

These three entities, fully coordinated and bound together by the triplicativity of their thought center and their creative upper sexual center, already managed to stabilize, propel and orientate their plasma ship/Merkabah in all dimensions of space and time, thanks to the strength of their energy and psychic balance. This kind of time travel will be possible and will become one of the skills which will be restituted to you after your transition to STO 4th density.

Remember that time travel was described by Anton Parks in the Book of Nuréa, when the couple Éa'am and Pistès, travelling in their Zida quantum machine, created space-time problems and overlapping realities due to the desynchronization of their binomial consciousness centre. At that moment, their center of consciousness was built on the separation of male/female polarities to the Service to the Self, causing emotionality because of their attachment to the principle of duality, of the couple, of the two.

This issue in energy fluctuation by the “two”, leading to a desynchronization of time lines, will be solved in the future, when the stability of the three will have formed. This base of three, the balancing triplicativity represented by the third character, leading to the beginnings of the Service to Others, will thus become necessary to start traveling in time. It would master the three modes: the static condition in space, the dynamic conditions in time and the neutralizing force or catalyzing buffer energy, ensuring the maintenance of balance on all planes and at all levels. This third force is often beyond human observation, because of the bipolar character of their psyche.

Question to the Angel:

As we understand it, after being imagined by consciousnesses of 6th density, STO ships are not “manufactured” as UFOs in 4th density are, yet they can be densified, materialized and look like them. Is this idea correct?

If you want to imagine the features of a STO transdimensional ship, you will first have to put aside the more or less fanciful descriptions of Anunnaki/Nephilim UFOs, coming from the STS reptilian worlds. The “STO ship” concept is still elusive for the human being of 3rd density. Moreover, it is also the case for entities of STS 4th density that are not yet really open to the idea of the soul journey to the Service to Others.

A STO ship would rather appear like a plasma energy sphere moving between densities and dimensions; a kind of Merkabah or orb, not individual such as you already know it, but rather as an orb-egg, a living ship containing all the genetic codes of the physical, vital and mental body of each of the three individual entities or “body-sould-spirit” that compose it. (cf. Chronicle 17)

These different bodies of physical, vital, mental energy (this time devoid of astral emotional), then constitute these much-vaunted centers of consciousness that, for example, are each time called differently during the Cassiopaeon transcripts (Honilée, Hollenoaea, Keleeinaea, Koripfqek, Soinorqaque...).

This Merkabah, a vehicle of psychic energy which the human being would see as a spherical or ovoid form (if only he could perceive it), facilitates the teleportation of his bodies in the different densities and their journeys between dimensions. This expedition/ journey is realised by the genome migration of the three individuals composing this triplicativity (that is to say the genetic codes of the three souls and their physical extension) protected by their consciousness bubble, their perispirit, through higher densities. These three individuals, reunited by their common center of consciousness, are sometimes called “Wanderers”, the much-vaunted Wave travellers who explore and read the informational waves (images, sounds, smells and sensations) produced by the realities they pass through.

Their spiritual-energetic bubble/vehicle hence allows the transfer, then the crossing in all dimensions and densities of these worlds in which their souls are reunified in a single center of consciousness. This spiritual ship therefore represents as such, a technology of teleportation in space and time!

At the final ascension of these three individuals towards higher densities, a kind of teleportation or transition of all their genetic codes, begins with the magnetic suction of their material bodies by this technology of towing beams, that ignorant humans can see under UFOs. Thus, these ships/technologies of energy transfer are not means of transport as conceived by humans. They are a translation process leading to higher levels of reality, themselves determined by the frequency of resonance of the three entities (or more) composing this “spiritual ship”/UFO.

Then, this sort of “STO UFO” absolutely does not “work” like this nuts and bolts technology still far too primitive, made up by the consciousnesses of STS 4th density, but these perispirit/STO ships are only intended to travel between densities and dimensions in order to explore and observe them. (cf. Chronicle 25).

This ascension of your genetic and energetic bodies towards higher densities is recorded in the Bible and corresponds to the moment when the “risen” Christ, Mary and Mary Magdalene ascended to heaven. Actually, the ascension, the abduction of a transdimensional triplicativity by their Merkabah, takes place on the same occasion, but religions have made them very distinct events and celebrations, so that the human cannot link them to the collective, natural and progressive phenomenon of the density change which “awaits” him.

Let’s go back now to the relationship between sexuality and these much-vaunted UFOs/ Merkabah! And to understand how this technology of time travel combines with sexuality, and is dependent on sexuality, you first have to admit that human sexuality was reprogrammed after the fall of Atlantis, when the Nephilim/Anunnaki of STS 4th density coming back in your solar system and taking advantage of the windows between dimensions, penetrated “your human world” with their own ships.

These openings in space-time, “wormholes” between your reality and theirs, created by their technology, also allowed these STS entities by bending time, to invest human psyche. Through this technology, these entities have been able to alter your perception of space-time. And as for the couple Ea’am and Pistès who travelled in their quantum machine, the Nephilim/Anunnaki moved by their dual consciousness, such as the desire for conquest, possession and power over others (that is to say of the Service to Self), generated incidents in space-time and problems of reality entanglements.

Obviously, their dual and bipolar consciousnesses were not reunited by a harmonious center of consciousness, such as the one of individuals who join together to serve others. Thus, taking advantage of this opening in space-time, these entities have in a way provoked a kind of virulent psychosis, a sort of chaos in your world which modified the reality of other entities/individuals and spread by the psychic egregore of your humanity, through the morphogenic field.

Also, to better understand the phenomenon of dimensional portals in the Universe, imagine (even if it is not exactly the case) that these wormholes represent a passage between your human psyche and the consciousness of the 6th density IS-BE. The Universe would then be comparable and stackable to the psychic system of the IS-BE you are at a higher level of Being and that is linked to yours through a similar mechanism. This perfect primordial Being is the consciousness of that androgynous Namlú’u who is connected to you, because you are and incarnate that Namlú’u already! This primordial Being is your hyperdimensional creator “I am” who exists on Orion and with whom you will merge with after your transition into higher densities.

In the meantime, psychic entities predators of the human spirit behave like a virus contaminating the too vulnerable human consciousnesses, progressively reducing his intelligence. These unconscious and destructive psychic forces have a solid psychic reality, because they affect and modify the experience of yourselves. These nomad predators also wander and scatter in a non local way in the informational or morphogenic coherence field of the Universe, while mutually feeding and reinforcing the shaded areas of the human collective unconscious. However, you have to know that these entities, vectors of infection (negative thought-forms) do not travel like physical pathogens. Having a flaw in their system of psychic attacks, these negative thought-forms can only act in the dual worlds, which obviously in the ancient world, are generated by duality intensified by sexual bipolarity.

Then, knowing that sexual activities were reprogrammed in order to prevent earthlings from evolving towards their humanity of STO oriented galactic explorers, that they should have reached as their intelligence progressed normally, you can understand that these STS psychic predators are at the root of this reprogramming of the human energy centers. And they are, both at the astral level and at the 3rd density level, by constantly supporting and instilling limiting programs, that is to say all forms of programs which restrain not only creative sexuality, but also intelligent creative psychism.

“Negative” and “psychopathic” sexuality of the Service to Self is then started when partners give themselves over to sexual interactions of “possession” type, that is to say of domination/submission. One of the individuals experiencing humiliation, slavery and enslavement, the other experiencing pleasure through overpower and control over the first. Transfers of energy being stopped only if one or the other “is afraid of this possession”, in other words, fears being possessed, the desire for possession or the desire to be possessed.

This kind of sexuality generates the paralysis of the sexual energy centers and then, an insatiable appetite for a domination/submission type sexuality, because of the blockage of the heart center/superior sexual center. These consciousnesses of entropic or negative orientation will use the sexual resources of the three lower centers for assertiveness. Whereas individuals of positive orientation consciousness will use these same resources to increase the force of the affirmation of the Service to Others.

The triplicative sexuality is then a sort of special operation inspired by the higher authorities of 4th density to the Service to Others which you will be offered. Experiences by the magic of the three will then have absolutely nothing to do with “vulgar threesome” without any awareness of the consequences generated on the higher planes. In the ancient world of 3rd density, these morbid sexual games indeed continue to generate either separation from the other, or psychopathic-type control over the other. On a larger scale, “these sexual orgies and other plans” without any awareness of their implications on the higher levels, generate for example more and more psychopathic acts within your governments and terrifying warrior actions within human society.

Also, when sexuality is expressed by a true sharing of desire, tenderness, this without any constraint, without any “perversion” or “control” over (or by) the partners, in other words when the sacral center (single partner relationship; orange colour on the schema above) and the solar plexus center (two or more partners relationship; yellow colour) polarize towards the center of the heart/upper sexual center (unconditional love, acceptance, no judgment, no fear and no guilt; green colour), this sexual path of sharing becomes a creative vibratory frequency and moves towards the path of the Service to Others.

Unlike the buddhist teaching of New Age or of certain traditional religions, the three lower energy centers, including individual relationships up to relations with many other Self (red, orange, yellow), are fully part of the energetic system of the new Man. None must be neglected in order for the upper sexual center (in green), which finishes the shepherd's crook, featured in blue, indigo, then purple, to be able to fulfil its sexual function of worlds creator and planner.

Dedicated to others in this way, sexual sharing takes place in the high vibratory magic since when it is carried out consciously, that is to say with ethics and respect, it connects the body to the mental/superior Spirit, and will generate contact with the infinite creative Intelligence. This sexual energy flowing through the body of the individual is regulated by the higher/future Self at the level of the skin, which is the organ most receptive to the electromagnetic energies transmitted by the higher worlds. Moreover, constantly reeked of its high electromagnetic energies, “your other partners/mirrors Self”’s skin generally arouses the desire to touch it, to caress it, since vibrating at the same frequency of resonance as your own Self, it can reveal to you certain bonds within the soul families.

Thus, in 4th density, the most important is this upper sexual center powered by the three lower sexual centers. It connects Man to the cosmic plan through the vibration of pleasure, joy or happiness, since in the same way as thought, sexuality is not separated from the morphogenetic field. It only differs between its expression on the informational plane and its expression on the level of the densified planes, since within those ones, it becomes “acts” and “gestures” accomplishing in the multiple human dimensions.

At the level of the higher planes, this sexual energy has no human quality, yet it contains the secrets of the human being evolution. Originally, sexuality stood in for organizing human and social life on a collective level by giving to Man the sense of possession. It had to be used to progressively increase its form of consciousness, in order to be able to go beyond the binary or bipolar stage of the management of this energy. This, first by developing it within the couple, then to reach a much more complex level of a collectivity, then of a society.

Thereby, the STO candidate who will succeed in raising the sexual energy from his lower center (root center) to his upper sexual center (heart center), by reactivating his other lower energy centers (sacral and plexus centers), then by radiating this energy towards the throat center and the pineal center, will transform the state of his Self and his “new position” in society, in situations in which he will be able to merge with the other, or serve the other. It is then that he will finally be able to radiate his energy towards this other Self, without expecting any return or result.

Extract from Bringers of the Dawn – Teachings from the Pleadians, from Barbara Marciniak:

“Very deep inside the mechanism of sexuality is a frequency that can be attained that has been sought after and misunderstood by many people. It is called orgasm.

The orgasm has been distorted from its original purpose. Your body has forgotten the cosmic orgasm of which it is capable because society has taught you for thousands and thousands of years that sexuality is bad. You have been taught this in order for you to be controlled and to keep you from seeking the freedom available through sexuality. Sexuality connects you with a frequency of ecstasy, which connects you back to your divine source and to information.

Sexuality has been given a bad name upon this planet, and that bad name is stored in your cellular memory. This is not just from this lifetime; it is from thousands of years of misappropriation and misuse. It is necessary for you to clear the negativity surrounding sexuality from this lifetime, as well as to experience and examine how you utilize sexual energy and sexual expression in your multidimensional selves.

The sexual parts of the body are avenues to pleasure that create frequencies that heal and stimulate the body and potentially lead it to its higher spiritual self. Sexuality is so misunderstood on this planet that, when it is exchanged between two persons, very seldom is there an intent to connect spirituality with it. Sexuality invokes a spirituality that is free and that looks at itself as a creator. However, very seldom is sexuality used as a bridge to take you to higher levels of consciousness. [...]

When you work one-on-one intimately, you develop trust. [And when you meet people who are well harmonized with your vibrations, you develop peace, tranquility and harmony within yourself.] Most of you have difficulty trusting yourselves because you don't have a role model for trust. You can learn about trust in a relationship because a relationship acts as a mirror for you, showing you what you cannot see from your own viewpoint. It shows you yourself outside of yourself when you have open communication within sexuality and deep intimacy, and when you are not using sexuality as a distraction for getting close. Many of you have used sexuality as a distraction and a way to avoid intimacy rather than to develop it.

You begin to get energo and to look into one another's eyes and to feel all hot and excited. Then, instead of exploring each other intimately and spiritually, you shut down your feeling centers, put on your armor, and have shallow, genital sex because it is too frightening and too intense to go the deeper route of full body and full spiritual connection. Sometimes hot sex feels great and is wonderful.

We are simply saying that there is more. There is much more, and no one is keeping it from you except yourselves and the beliefs and fear you have of letting down your boundaries and walls.”

Question to the Angel:

Is a “good sexual practice” essential to change density at the time of the passage of the Wave?

To prepare to change density, it is absolutely essential that your body is in good shape and that you have accepted all the needs and aspects of your incarnation. Those which seem shameful or unpleasant to you as well as those that you would consider nice and pleasant. Your mind needs to be sane, devoid of shame, modesty, fear, guilt, rivalry, scruples, jealousy... It must be free from any emotionality. Thus, that's where your sexuality comes into play. If you want to switch to 4th density with your current physical body, your energy centers will have to be fully functional and your DNA intact, rehabilitated and complete. (About the importance of DNA integrity in the transfer of density: see the story of the Beast of Gévaudan – Cf. Dialogue n°39).

A “good sexual practice” respects an absolute ethic: that of self-respect and that of the respect for others. This is because on the cosmic level, sexuality is not only a vibration of pleasure and joy, it is much more than that. In 6th density, it becomes energy shared and commuted by world-creator group consciousnesses. And when sexuality is voluntarily shared and is not suffered or imposed (that is to say there are no victims of sexual abuse like in the worlds of STS 3rd density), sexual relations become a frequency that not only provides individuals a lot of pleasure and benefits, but greatly raise their vibratory frequencies.

Creator beings of pure consciousness express their respect, their fraternity, their interdependence within the center of consciousness they form, through vibrations of love and communion. Their exchanges of “vibrations” are completed and materialized in your world through true sexual exchanges. The orgasm that you experience during your encounters is then transposed into higher worlds by the creation of a new dimension of reality. Therefore, when humans of the New Earth engage with joy and creativity in their sexuality, beings of 6th density receiving these vibrations emitted by the human's upper sexual center, benefit from it to invent, create and give birth to other worlds.

You can now understand why, during the Atlantean period after the last invasion of the Nephilim, the human being's sexuality became a gathering of psychic and psychological perversion, articulated by a subtle programming of the ego, thereby negating the true man's creative power, since he has been cut off from his double: his future higher Self.

The secrets of this programming, mental manipulation techniques, are only beginning to be revealed. Since by depriving that man of his primary center, that of the pleasure of animal sexuality (thus with a body dependent on the collective consciousness) and while reprogramming his psyche towards the guilt of sexual act (the culpability²), STS predators have in this way managed to paralyze all of the energy centers of the individual, who otherwise could have regained the full talents of his higher Self, his cosmic double, those of the Namlú'u that he was before the Anunnaki/Nephilim arrived on his planet. This corpus wanted to prevent the human being from individualizing by merging their mind with the new Man's body, the human being of the future. It has therefore prevented all of their “natural and legitimate energy centers” from awakening.

² « Culpability » translates into « culpabilité » in french, which can be decomposed as follows : «cu-pas-habilité » meaning « not empowered ass ».

The human being had thus lost the use of these, and in this case the power of their upper sexual center which combined creativity, communication, visions and higher intelligence. The first three centers being legitimately integral part of the energetic and physiological system of the individual, the predatory corpus had nothing more to undertake than reprogramming the DNA of the human being endowed in their biological body of 3rd density, with genetics of animal and terrestrial origin, by making them believe that they were depending on a collective human consciousness.

This programming in the human psyche has generated the full emotional range linked to guilt, jealousy, fears, possession. Therefore, since the intervention of the Anunnaki/Nephilim predators, the human genome has quite simply remained that of a slightly smarter animal!

However, facilitated at this end of cycle by the vibratory acceleration of the planet's frequencies, and relearning to connect their intuition and their visions to higher planes realities, some human beings now cooperating with their doubles, gradually respond to magnetic pulses induced by the higher planes (higher centers of consciousness) and perceived by the creative sexual heart center.

Now, through this famous energy circuit of the shepherd's crook and thanks to these magnetic pulses, the human being could thus begin to progress towards their creative power and towards the Service to Others in 3rd density and for others, to prepare to cross the higher planes of 4th density of consciousness.

You will then understand that the primary sexual center, that of the man's sexual activity with his animal physiology, had to be fixed, rebalanced, and then stabilized by the principle of the three. Since the binary system, that is that of the Service to Self matrix, being based upon the two, duality, bipolarity, marriage, couple (cut-it!³), will no longer be "viable" in the higher worlds.

The current global planetary consciousness founded on this matrix of sexual bipolarity, this means of the two, having engendered a world to the Service to the Self, the new world will therefore progressively be brought to free itself through the three in order to progress towards the Service to Others.

The day will come when people will not "endure" sexuality anymore, will no longer live a forced and perverted sexuality through rapes, so-called marital duties, violence and sexual abuses of all kinds, in short, attempts to their psychic, physical and sexual integrity. They will be able to share and live their sexuality according to a superior consciousness, instead of enduring it according to the terrestrial collective consciousness, its emotional, its fears, its guiltiness, its shames, coming from all of the physical and non-physical bodies still inhabiting the levels of the astral, including the planes of death.

Only then will their sexual creative power no longer be parasitized by the predators of the mind, because from that moment on, this sexuality having become harmonious again will generate a very high vibratory rate, and can no longer be used “experimentally” in the human being in order to feed the predatory entities. This new sexuality of the Man of tomorrow will be much more balanced and fulfilling. It will become very creative, joyful, open and spiritual, as inhabited by the Spirit. It will be spontaneously part of the everyday life of the human, just like his other natural physiological needs. And it is even from then on that the humans, in the subtle part of their energetic bodies, will be able to start to create a new extremely active energy center! It is also from the latter, the energetic center of the throat, the one of wisdom, honesty, clarity, inspiration, that the true light/information, the truth, will again be spread within the world.

It will become essential to coordinate the creative inspiration of the group soul, to configure its consciousness center and hence authorize the human to undertake his creative power on the subtle planes, this means to form potentialities of reality regarding management, harmonization and development of the future races.

According to the LEO consciousness center, the reality of the New World of 4th density will introduce this “triplicativity” as much on the sexual plane as in other domains. It will result in a modification of the extreme STS polarity in 3rd density, that is to say that of the “YY” psychopathy, the dominant patriarchate and destructor of worlds. Hence, the masculine’s destructive energy polarity will be lowered and reduced by the introduction of new codes in the human genome. Among other things, it is considered by life planners that its genetic is reprogrammed with a diminished Y chromosome, in order to lower the dominating and destructive urges of Man. Consequently, polarities will then be replaced by three sexual polarities instead of two:

- The strictly female individual – the woman XXx,
- The androgynous individual – predominantly female XXy,
- And the androgynous individual – predominantly male XYx.

The 19th of July 1997, the Cassiopaeans had announced this progression with:

A: Laura, my dear, if you really want to reveal “many beautiful and amazing things”, all you need to do is remember the triad, the trilogy, the trinity, and look always for the triplicative connecting clue profile. Connect the threes... do not rest until you have found three beautifully balancing meanings!!

Q: So, in everything there are three aspects?

A: And why? Because it is the realm of the three that you occupy. In order to possess the keys to the next level, just master the Third Man Theme, then move on with grace and anticipation.

<https://cassiopaea.org/forum/threads/session-19-july-1997.39312/>

The Angel had also announced it through:

“As for you, all you have to do is to remember the trinity and continue to research the clues system leading to “triplicative” connections that transcend duality and connect you to each other to develop your creative energy. Identify these connections in the three domains: psychic, consciousness and genetics, until you have found three perfectly “balanced” common points. For when your unconscious (the Selves of the past) is connected to your subconscious (the Self of the future) and then this subconscious connects to other “superconsciousnesses” on another level (the future higher Selves of the ones and the others), the internal connections between the individuals of a trinity complement each other and form a conduct towards the higher level to “give birth” to a higher souls’ group. From this point, it is no longer a question of continuing to believe in the “binary” duality of the ego’s world, but of beginning to experience the kingdom of the “Three” that you already occupy!”

In the same way as the concept of duality (the primordial separation or sexual polarization), the wave-particle duality also expresses, in quantum physics, the fact that light and matter, two vibratory states of the so-called opposed elements, would simultaneously represent wave and particle properties. Whereas when they are expressed, these simultaneous states of matter are purely of “pre or post-plasma consistency” or nature, a third state of matter which, even in sexual relationships, “opens the access” to antimatter, this means to potentials of realization in which all these phenomena of “alterisation”, differentiation, division or disjunction of realities happen.

Question to the Angel:

The phenomena of personality dissociation that reappear through our new experiences of “triplicativity”, are they indicators of the progress of our souls, or are they only informers of psychic attacks of transdimensional origin?

Before making this “reunion with the three” a reality, you often operated through your beliefs, in other words without relying on discernment nor reason. However, and henceforth, it is thanks to this “triplicativity” (a center of consciousness formed by at least three individuals) that the Spirit gives you a way of breaking your everyday routine and to disrupt your linear thoughts. Which also means that if the intentions, the thoughts and the words of three individuals are well chosen and clarified, and that these three communicate in every situation, you will already make, within this trinity, a lot of progress in detecting the psychic influence of hyperdimensional or astral entities, either STS or STO orientated.

And as the human will open his mind to a psyche devoid of egotistical reflection and analysis (therefore not reflected by his personality) but totally intuitive and observer, his mental will force the ego (depending on the planetary consciousness egregore) to adjust to new frequencies, which in return, will induce new psychic perceptions.

These new forms of perception will in some way be indicative of another type of advanced awareness, without having to cogitate, to reflect, or think, which will establish and facilitate much more naturally the immediate and conscious interception of messages or thought-forms, that will simply be to identify as characteristics of a telepathy with his future Self. And as increasingly, this type of understanding starts to be assimilated, it will become more and more easy for the humans that you still are, to accept your real contact with systemic hyperdimensional planes.

You will then understand that consciousness only is the growing and infinitely wider field of telepathic activities that assure you a consciousness and continuous knowledge without having to think, cogitate and even to the extreme, to ask questions! This telepathic consciousness that you will start to develop is an exclusive and personal source of knowledge which instantly, will be added to the rational intelligence of Man, when the latter will be connected to and centered on his mental plane of non-reflection, of non-thinking.

This new form of telepathy will then naturally and spontaneously give him a large range of answers to the fundamental questions of life, as it will no longer stem from his analytical mind limited by appearances, form or the objective, materialist and pragmatic side of senses. However, this type of telepathy will quite simply stem from the alliance with his higher spirit, independent of the mortal plane and continuously readjusting. This spirit pursues its parallel evolution outside the consciousness of the human ego, therefore on the higher plane of 6th density.

This particular condition of the higher mental consciousness merging with the new men, will create a deep division in the knowledge of ordinary human beings inhabiting the Earth. Since the new human who will have become “telepath” will have a double mind: one which continues to think and question itself, and one that “receives or channelizes” directly. Such an enrichment of the consciousness will necessarily engender a human race developing a mind which will consciously separate from the races that participated in the ego's involution.

Question to the Angel:

Our first experiences of triplicative energy were literally suggested to us, then confirmed by the symbol set that we briefly described in the previous chronicle, so be it! But how come these new energetic frequencies were also suggested to the group as a whole?

For some of you, there were presages imposed by karmic games. And on the plane of collective consciousness, you have asked for an acceleration of the density change. You are therefore open and ready to assume new experiences for a faster mutation of your collective consciousness center. Symbol sets were then suggested to you in order to support you in new experiences.

People, whose psychic and vibrational faculties you had no suspicion of, have been placed on your path, in order to experience this new strength of the three and to learn to operate without resorting to linear logic. This "reason" would have led you to believe that the other one does not have the right appearance, the right age, the right abilities, the right affinities, the right energy... But it is precisely to knock these illusory details over built on beliefs, on appearances, on costumes... that henceforth, the Spirit offers you to break your thought routine and to make huge progress.

Since you have had to learn to communicate in "new situations" that are "three times" more confronting and complex to be seized by your "controlling egos". Hence, your thoughts have become more and more sincere, your relationships and your interactions more authentic and warm. And that's how you make enormous advances!

From now on, the experiences you will create in these three-way relationships will be very powerful, as they will prodigiously transform you. They will carry you in this way, as you will settle into a frequency resonance of joy and unity, and all the things that henceforth you will attract to you will be a return of that vibration.

Your planet is facing a problem of overpopulation in 3rd density, since people are incapable of living their sexuality in a more intelligent way, quite simply because they link it to procreation. They still experience it in an astral, emotional and bestial way, instead of living it in a more intelligent, creative, but animal form at the same time! It is therefore very difficult for the human being to realize himself in his sexuality, because understanding that his body has for origin an animal biology is already unconceivable for him! To consider himself as an "animal" induces in him a value judgment, when in reality the "animal condition of sexuality” is simply the product of the activation on a lower plane, of an energy that originally comes from the higher cosmic planes!

In the reality of these completely etheric higher cosmic planes, therefore not manifested, there is then neither physical form, nor analytical thought-form (that comes from psyche). Only energy exchanges occur between the upper and lower planes. The worlds of matter resulting from the projection of these higher ethereal planes have become manifested in the densified realities, thanks to these exchanges of energy.

Sexuality is one of those forms of energy that circulate between these planes. It therefore becomes a physiologically vital need in the same way as breathing, drinking, sleeping or eating. Practiced in consciousness, it simply consists of absorbing a higher energy! Sexuality then becomes Knowledge, this means that it transforms into frequencies of resonance vibrations shared between individuals. That is why it is the only possible way in the physical worlds to really remind you who you are.

These exchanges of energy through sexuality are therefore frequency resonance vibrations that stem from superior planes towards the human being. And being unable to dive deeper into the frequencies of density, they also become “ultimate” or “terminal”, as they influence all the other energy centers of Man existing in these densified worlds.

Sexuality should therefore not remain trapped in the mind of the human, and even less in the emotional coming from the astral planes of the ancient world. Man having always put his “morality” in his intimate sexual relationships, he hence coloured them with his emotions, constantly falling back into the patterns belonging to the collective beliefs, therefore dependent on the astral planes. However, this type of sexual exchange, when it is not coloured by guiltiness (*le cul-pas-habilité*⁴) is extremely vital! Since if it is accomplished without shame, without “moralizing” ulterior motives, it can become very creative.

As a consequence, a sexual practice must be carried out with respect for others, as if it is shared in full trust, without complex, taboo or restraint, it becomes extremely powerful on the higher planes and increases the infinite power of “alchemical magic”.

Therefore, sexual energy must be respected, preserved, “channelized”, as it increases the infinite power of this “magic” accomplished by the consciousness of Man when he experiences part of the infinity of Consciousness in his sexuality. This energy, because it is above all managed and transmitted by his higher Self at the level of the skin (this means by his cosmic double of 6th density), leads the individual to feel the frequencies of the superior planes, thanks to an increased sensuality shared with his partner.

During his evolution in 3rd density, the secrets of sexuality were so hidden in taboos and interdictions, that no one could understand the transdimensional mechanisms that ensued. The individual could only guess or decipher them through symbolism and perceive what could be plotted on these different planes, only through pictorial representations. He was even forbidden to understand them, as he had not yet been authorized to lift the veil on the hidden mysteries behind true sexual exchanges, which could have “long ago” helped him to free himself from his memories.

In any case, the human of the future therefore have to learn to separate from his astral memories, one by one, alter after alter... and it will be his greatest initiation for the change of density! He will be obliged to go through this to become free again! Even at the level of his sexuality, as long as he has not visited, then went through all of his programmed memories in his psyche and embedded in his genetics, as well as in his unconscious, he will not be able to regain all his legitimate strength! Every individual will then be brought to follow the path of his soul to grow and develop his consciousness. New sexuality will be one of these means!

Also, in order to reverse the cause-effect mechanism, karmic influences have to be understood. And for the new Man to be able to find full consciousness of his individualized spirit again in order to merge with it, he will inevitably separate himself from the planetary collective consciousness of 3rd density, this means, from that of the ancient world. The “sexual relationships of a new type” will therefore be suggested to you as a means of releasing old karmic energies and so that this Man can transit towards new vibratory frequencies, highly harmonious and mutually more beneficial.

In your future triplicativities, each of you will bring frequential disorders or energetic occurrences to be resolved at a higher level, first within your collective experience, then in the middle of that of the “surviving human collectivity” of the future.

As members of a collective of information/light spreaders, you have each during your present incarnation, your personal difficulties to resolve. That is why you all carry distinct matrix-like programs. So you are all different. You therefore had to “spread” yourselves, “separate” during your incarnations in all eras, in all directions, in order to understand what the experience of being human represents. You had to cover the complete spectrum of human experience, so to determine at the cellular level, whatever had to be modified in the future.

You therefore had to perceive, see and understand how deep the sense of helplessness of the ordinary human is, how much the consciousness of human species has squandered then lost the feminine creative energy. This feminine that feels things and brings life to the planets, represents the creativity of the life planners, who retransmit to you their creative impulses within the creation. But these feminine energies have subdued themselves to the constant masculine vibration, to give him the opportunity of ruling the worlds without developing feelings. Finally, every time, he destroyed them.

To summarise this overall process, you had to be brought to notice that in the movements of life and the Universe, the feminine consciousness was the bearer of magic and intuition. And whether on the physical plane as much as on the consciousness, this feminine has accepted to no longer have resorts to her intuition which could generate this magic. The indigenous peoples who lived in symbiosis with their planet knew the secrets of life, quite simply because they were themselves of a very feminized polarity. Their creative polarity has literally brought life to the planet, because on the third level real life emanates from the body of the woman and the feminine consciousness. As a consequence, by giving birth, by this delivery, women have become “bearer” of emotions and feelings.

Nevertheless, instead of bringing and feeding life on the planet by learning to assist this intuitive and creative feminine, the patriarchy (the “YY” psychopathic masculine energy) has created all forms of interdictions, laws, restrictions but also all sorts of medicine, drugs and addictions (including sex, entertainment, etc.), in order to numb his capacity to feel his emotions, his intuitive sensibility; therefore to perpetuate his ignorance of the laws of intuition and its magical repercussions for human being. Since, as long as this “YY” male can not feel life in others, the latter has no value in his eyes; the military corpus and the great infanticidal criminals being the best examples of this absence of human and creative consciousness. Whereas if he could feel this life and participate in its creation and liberation, he would learn to appreciate it. The ardor of this life, its experimentation, its vivacity is “Knowledge”, and sexuality constitutes an essential element of this Knowledge! It is one of the energy frequencies of true life.

Given the fact that the frequencies of life on Earth change, that consciousness changes and sexuality as well, the latter will make possible to stabilize these new vibrations in your nervous system and psyche. But if your energy centers are not perfectly operational and well balanced thanks to the management of these new sexual energies, these informations will not be able to penetrate your reality in order to participate in the transformation of that of your planet and for which, through you, the IS-BE or the Namlú’u are committed to support you.

You are therefore really those working in your present to modify past time lines, in order to create their new future. You are therefore already the ones you will be in this new World!
